“Achieve” “Trust and Truthfulness” Songs: entry to worship: Our God is a great big God My God is so big.	4th Jan Launch the coming of Epiphany “What a great Surprise” Jesus is revealed.	Live Streamed Worship 9:10 a.m. The coming of the wise men with 3 gifts – Gold, Frankincense and Myrrh “We 3 kings.” Symbolism of the gifts. https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=7moxuLzUmU VIP: look for someone who values gifts which are not material	Discuss favourite gifts. How much fun were they? Were they useful? Are the best gifts the most expensive? Brainstorm some ideas of gifts the children would really like. Would they still like these gifts in a month? A Year? Find a box and give every child a small piece of paper on which to write gifts which are free and which are of value and last. i.e. kind words, a hug from a friend, help with something tricky. Put in the box and wrap it up for the reflection table. At the end of the half term, open the box and share the gifts with the class. Take each one home as a reminder of their importance.	God’s greatest gift to the world is his Son, the bringing of hope, love, Joy, Peace. Reflect on the advent candles. Jesus is now revealed and these values are here for the taking and sharing. VIP, Golden and Lunchtime books Live Streamed at 2:40 p.m.	Blackburn Diocese video – Prayers across the diocese.
